1. Introduction

Logix Build Pty Ltd (ABN 41 163 122 156) ("Logix Build", "we", "us", "our") is committed to protecting the privacy of your personal information. We are bound by the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) contained in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) ("Privacy Act").

This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, hold, use, disclose, and protect your personal information. By engaging our services, using our website (logixbuild.com.au), or providing your personal information to us, you consent to the collection, use, and disclosure of your personal information in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

2. Information We Collect

We may collect the following types of personal information:

- Full name
- Mailing or street address
- Email address
- Telephone number(s)
- Date of birth
- Profession, occupation, or job title
- Company or business name and ABN/ACN
- Financial information necessary for payment processing (e.g., bank account details for progress claims)
- Property details, including address, title information, and site conditions
- Photographic and video recordings of project sites
- Information provided through our website, enquiry forms, or correspondence
- Records of communications between you and Logix Build
- Any other information reasonably necessary for us to provide our services

3. How We Collect Information

We collect personal information:

- Directly from you when you make an enquiry, request a quotation, or enter into a contract with us
- Through your use of our website, including through cookies and analytics tools
- During conversations, meetings, or site inspections with our representatives
- From third parties such as your architect, engineer, legal representative, real estate agent, or other consultants, where you have authorised them to share your information
- From publicly available sources, including property records and business registers

Where we collect personal information from third parties, we take reasonable steps to ensure that you are aware of, or have consented to, the collection.

4. Purpose of Collection

We collect and use your personal information for the following purposes:

- To provide construction and building services to you
- To process quotations, tenders, and contracts
- To communicate with you about your project, including progress updates
- To issue invoices and process payments
- To comply with our legal and regulatory obligations
- To manage workplace health and safety obligations
- To maintain records for warranty and defect liability purposes
- To improve our services, website, and customer experience
- To send you marketing communications about our services (with your consent or where permitted by law)
- To respond to enquiries, complaints, and feedback

If you do not provide us with the personal information we request, we may not be able to provide our services to you or respond to your enquiry.

5. Disclosure of Information

We may disclose your personal information to the following categories of recipients:

- Our employees, directors, and officers
- Our subcontractors, suppliers, and trade partners engaged to perform work on your project
- Our professional advisers, including accountants, auditors, and lawyers
- Our insurance providers
- Our IT service providers, hosting providers, and website analytics providers
- Government and regulatory bodies, including local councils, NSW Fair Trading, SafeWork NSW, and the Australian Taxation Office, where required or authorised by law
- Your authorised representatives, including your architect, engineer, or legal adviser
- Any other party with your express consent

Your personal information will not be sold, rented, or traded to any third party for marketing purposes without your explicit consent.

6. Data Security

We take reasonable steps to protect your personal information from misuse, interference, loss, unauthorised access, modification, and disclosure. Our security measures include:

- Secure electronic storage systems with access controls and encryption
- Physical security measures for paper-based records

- Staff training on privacy obligations and data handling procedures
- Secure disposal of personal information when no longer required
- Regular review and updating of our security practices

While we take reasonable precautions, no method of transmission over the internet or electronic storage is completely secure, and we cannot guarantee the absolute security of your information.

7. Data Retention

We retain your personal information for as long as reasonably necessary for the purposes for which it was collected, or as required by law. For construction projects, records are typically retained for a minimum of seven (7) years after project completion to satisfy statutory warranty periods, taxation requirements, and professional obligations.

When personal information is no longer required, we will take reasonable steps to destroy or de-identify it.

8. Your Rights

Under the Privacy Act, you have the right to:

- Request access to the personal information we hold about you
- Request correction of any inaccurate, incomplete, or out-of-date personal information
- Request deletion of your personal information (subject to legal and contractual obligations)
- Opt out of receiving marketing communications at any time

To exercise any of these rights, please contact us using the details in Section 16 below. We will respond to your request within thirty (30) days. In some cases, we may need to verify your identity before processing your request.

We may refuse access or correction in certain circumstances permitted by law, and will provide you with written reasons if we do so.

9. Cookies and Website Analytics

Our website may use cookies, web beacons, and similar tracking technologies to improve your browsing experience, analyse website traffic, and understand usage patterns.

We may use third-party analytics services such as Google Analytics, which collect anonymised data about website visitors. You can manage cookie preferences through your browser settings or opt out of Google Analytics by installing the Google Analytics Opt-Out Browser Add-on.

Cookies do not personally identify you. By using our website, you consent to the use of cookies in accordance with this policy.

10. Third-Party Links

Our website may contain links to third-party websites. These websites are not subject to our Privacy Policy, and we are not responsible for their privacy practices. We recommend that you review the privacy policies of any third-party websites you visit.

11. Government Identifiers

We will not use or disclose government identifiers (such as tax file numbers or Medicare numbers) other than when required or authorised by law.

12. Sensitive Information

We will not collect sensitive information about you (including information about racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious beliefs, health information, or criminal records) unless: it is required by law; it is necessary for an insurance claim; it is necessary for work health and safety compliance; or you have provided your express consent.

13. Direct Marketing

We may send you direct marketing communications about our services, projects, and industry news that we consider may be of interest to you. These communications may be sent by email, SMS, or post, in accordance with the Spam Act 2003 (Cth) and the Do Not Call Register Act 2006 (Cth).

You may opt out of receiving marketing communications at any time by contacting us or using the unsubscribe mechanism provided in our electronic communications. We will process your opt-out request within five (5) business days.

14. Cross-Border Disclosure

We do not ordinarily disclose personal information to recipients outside Australia. If we do need to disclose your information overseas (for example, to cloud storage providers), we will take reasonable steps to ensure that the overseas recipient handles your information in accordance with the APPs.

15. Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect changes in our business practices, legal obligations, or industry standards. The current version will always be available on our website. We encourage you to review this policy periodically. Material changes will be communicated to you where practicable.

16. Complaints and Contact

If you have any questions, concerns, or complaints about this Privacy Policy or how we handle your personal information, please contact us:
